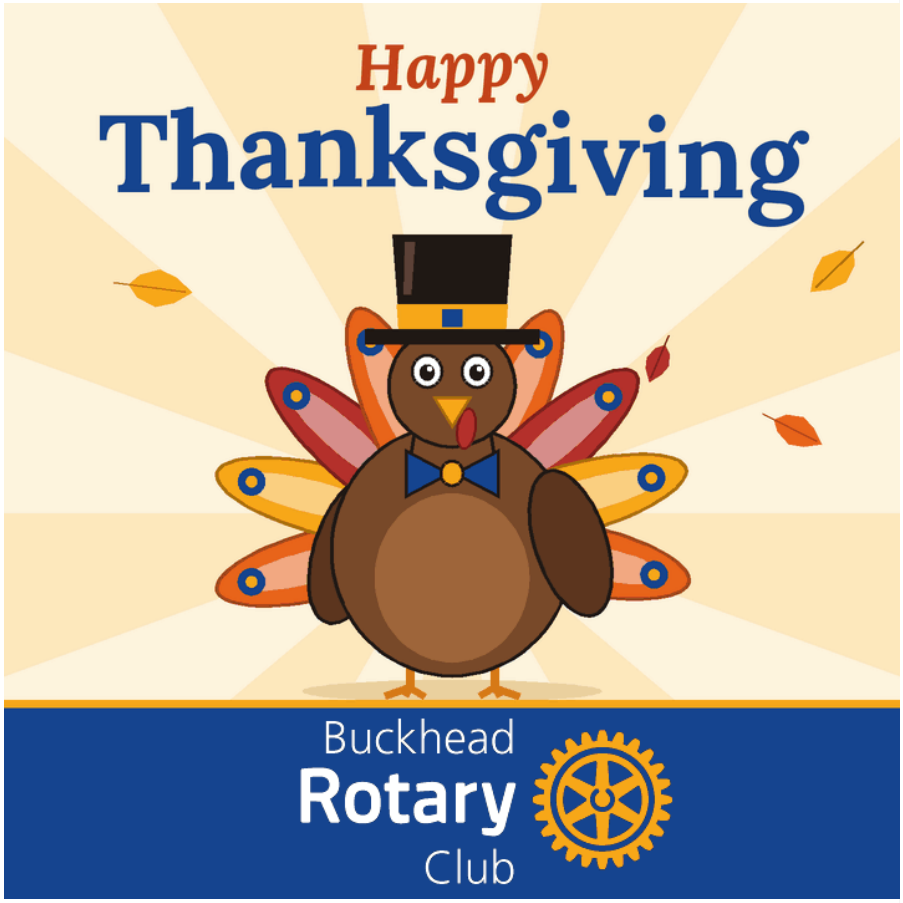
Gobble Gobble



With Gratitude

Happy Thanksgiving, Buckhead Rotary.

Today is a day for appreciating your blessings, and this club is high on my list. Over the past few weeks you filled tables with donated food, and together we packed and delivered twelve Thanksgiving baskets to Horizons Atlanta families. Twelve families are sitting down to a fuller table today because you showed up.

Our gratitude continues Monday, when we welcome Atlanta Police Chief Darin Schierbaum as our speaker. We will also present a $5,000 check to the Atlanta Police Foundation in support of the men and women who keep our city safe.

Monday is also our Annual Meeting, and we need you there. Our bylaws require one-third of the membership to be present for a quorum, so your attendance truly counts. I will present the Nominating Committee's slate for the 2027–28 club year: our officers, including the incoming Treasurer, and three Directors who will each serve a three-year term. Nominations may also be made from the floor. We will then hold a voice vote, with a majority electing each position. Those elected take office July 1.

I am deeply grateful to serve with such an amazing group of people, with kind hearts and a shared dedication to Service Above Self. Thank you for all you give to this club, to our community, and to one another.

Wishing you and your families a wonderful Thanksgiving.

Blessings,

Jeff Clark
